HORRIBLE EXPLOSION.

Eight Persons Killed and a Dozen Badly Injured by an Accident at Chicago Yesterday.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—Eight persons were almost instantly killed and a dozen others injured, yesterday afternoon, by the explosion of the tug Charles Parker, in the south branch of the river, near the Archer avenue bridge. Three of the dead belonged to the crew of the boat, while the others were bystanders, who were killed by flying debris. The Parker, together with the tugs Van Schaack, Percy and Shields, had been working all day, endeavoring to free the propeller H. S. Pickards, which had grounded in the south draw of the bridge. They had puffed and pulled away almost incessantly until shortly before 5 o'clock, when, with comparatively little steam, the boiler of the Parker exploded. Columns of water were thrown into the air, falling upon the other tugs, drenching and blinding the crews. A moment later the debris showered upon the ground on either side of the river. Pieces of broken iron and woodwork fell upon the docks and the streets. At the time Archer avenue, near the scene of the accident, was crowded. The noise of the explosion and the falling wreck caused a terrible panic. When the spectators partially recovered their senses it was discovered that eight persons were dead, while many more were injured, some of them probably fatally. The dead are:

Mrs. A. M. Rice, aged twenty-three, of No. 3013 Archer avenue, head crushed by falling debris.

Barbara Rice, eighteen months old, daughter of Mrs. Rice, head crushed.

Samuel Sawyer, aged twenty-one, switchman of the Illinois Steel company.

Bartholomew Curtin, aged ten, of No. 3289 Pauline street, struck on the head by an iron bolt.

Jones B. Carter, captain of the tug, married, body not yet recovered.

John O. Moore, of Highland Park, engineer of the tug, body not yet recovered.

Samuel Armstrong, of Manistee, cook of the tug, body not yet recovered.

Unknown man, killed by piece of the furnace door, about thirty years of age, dark complexion, brown mustache, body at Kisner's morgue.

The injured are:

Joseph Cullem, No. 890 Maxwell street, fireman of the Parker; terribly scalded; will die.

Henry Bell, lineman of the Parker; badly scalded.

Frank Wagner, No. 18 South Green street, arm broken.

Joseph Bomarack, No. 809 South Ashland avenue, skull fractured; may die.

George Jewell, captain of the tug Van Schaack, leg and back bruised.

Louis Demaas, lineman of the Van Schaack, back injured.

James Cunningham, cook of the Van Schaack, head cut.

A. Manus, fruit dealer, hip injured.

Edward Maher, both knees nape badly injured.

Richard Powers, ten years old, hurt about legs.

As the air cleared after the explosion, the Parker was seen rolling slowly and settling, stern foremost, into the water. A moment later Joseph Cullen and Henry Bell were seen struggling in the water. Life lines were thrown to them, and they were helped on board one of the other tugs. Cullen's flesh was almost parboiled, and in clinging to the life ropes the skin was torn from his hands. The explosion was a peculiar one. The fatalities on shore in each case occurred some distance from the wrecked tug, and in places where the victims would seem to be in almost perfect safety.

The unanimous opinion of vesselmen is that the explosion was caused by the filthy water in the river. It is so full of grease and dirt of every sort that when it gets into a boiler it foams up just like soap suds, which makes it very dangerous.

TWO OLD MEN

Succeed in Making Matrimonial Engagements With Each Others Daughters.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5.—News comes from the west that Colonel Forsyth, formerly of General Sheridan's staff, has just succeeded in winning the hand of the daughter of his old friend, Dr. Dallas Bache, a Philadelphian, and also of the military service, and that Miss Forsythe, had become engaged to Dr. Bache. Each of the men is sixty years of age and has been a widower about the same length of time. Neither of the young women is much over twenty years of age. Dr. Bache is a direct descendant of Benjamin Franklin and is connected with the family of the late Vice-President Geo. M. Dallas.

COWARDLY BARILLAS.

Fearing an Outbreak, Orders His Soldiers to Fire Into a Party.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—A banker of Guatemala, in a private letter to Mr. Ramon Vieds, of Revist Popular, under date of September 16, says: "The 15th of September, which ought to have passed with pleasant memories, as it was the anniversary of our independence, turned out very sadly because of fighting between the two parties. Many were wounded by balls, daggers, rocks and the garrottes, but only one or two were killed outright. The disturbance was provoked by the fear of General Barillas, which led him to order his soldiers to fire upon the people."

SORROWING RELATIVES

Vainly Attempt to Extort From a Dying Miser the Hiding Place of His Wealth.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Oct. 5.—Daniel McCormick, a miser, is dying in a dilapidated tenement house on North Sands street. He cannot live twenty four hours. Around his bedside stands his friends and two relatives, vainly endeavoring to persuade the old man to tell where he has hidden $7,000 that he is known to possess. McCormick is seventy years old. For nearly two months he has taken nothing and his body is so wasted that the bones almost stick through the skin. He served through the war in the Fortieth regiment, Missouri state militia, and several years ago received a pension, with back pay, amounting to $8,000. Since that time he has spent nothing and has kept the money buried. When he was taken sick $1,000 was found inside of his underclothing.

Rev. Frank Gunsaulus, of Chicago, who stands in the front rank of platform orators, will open the Star course at the city department of the Y. M. C. A. on Friday evening. The sale of course tickets has been fully up to the expectation of the committee, who have worked hard, not for any gain, as it was not expected to make any money but to benefit the people by giving them choice entertainments at prices that all should be able to avail themselves of. Let there be a good appreciation of their efforts. Those who hear Gunsaulus will receive profit and pleasure far more than the cost of their tickets.

DIED IN THE FLAMES.

Sad Fate of the Murphy Family in a New York Tenement House Fire.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—A fire occurred in the five-story tenement house at the corner of Hudson and Dominick streets, shortly after 2 o'clock this morning. All the occupants, except four persons, were rescued with difficulty. Wm. Murphy, his wife and two step children, occupied the fifth floor. Mrs. Murphy climbed through the top door to the roof, her clothing being in flames. There she burned slowly to death. Her charred remains were found on the roof by the firemen. Josephine Ryan, a five year-old child, who was visiting the Murphy family, was burned to death in her bed. Two at pchildren of Murphy's, Merlin and John Toughey, were severely burned and their recovery is doubtful. The pecuniary loss is small. Katie Dunn, aged twenty, who boarded with the Murphy's, was found in her bed asphyxiated by smoke. John Toughey died shortly after being taken to the hospital. The fire started in a woodshed in the basement and quickly ignited the gas meters, the flames rushing up the elevator shaft to the top floor, where the Murphy family lived.

RECAPTURED.

Henry F. Hardy, the Escaped Convict, Taken Back to Clinton Prison.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Oct. 5.—Henry F. Hardy, the convict who escaped from Clinton prison last Thursday, was recaptured here last evening while attempting to board a train for New York. When Officer Wool was approaching, Hardy opened fire with a revolver. Wool returned the shots and brought him down, shooting him in the leg and laming him for life. Hardy was fairly well dressed and was well supplied with money. He had a $500 bill, a $20 bill and $9 in small bills. He had two 32-calibre revolvers and a map of Clinton county, all of which indicates that he not only had assistance outside but inside the prison, as well. Hardy says when he left the prison he went into the woods and came around to Cadyville, reaching here yesterday afternoon.

The Fortunate Groom is the Brother of Oscar Wilde.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The marriage service of Mrs. Leslie and Mr. Wilde, which was at the Episcopalian church, was performed by Dr. Deems, in the church of Strangers on Mercer street. The only witnesses were Marshall Wilder, the humorist, and Mr. Cramer, a publisher, and his wife. Mr. Wilde, who is on the staff of the London Daily Telegraph, is the eldest son of the late Sir Wm. Wilde, M. D., of Dublin, and a brother of Oscar Wilde, the well known esthetic. He has known Mrs. Leslie for some years. It is understood that Mr. and Mrs. Wilde will remain in this country and enter in the editorial work of the Leslie publications.

A BRAVE WOMAN.

Ten Negroes Driven Back in Their Cells at the Point of a Rifle.

FORT WORTH, Texas, Oct. 5.—A daring attempt at jail delivery was frustrated by a brave woman with a loaded rifle yesterday. Ten negroes confined in the county jail made a break for liberty and overpowered the jailor. The jailor's wife grabbed a rifle and threatened to shoot the negroes if they did not return to their cells. The negroes sullenly entered their cells and were locked up.

A DEADLY PETARD

Discovered in a Church Just in Time to Save the Structure.

TRIESTE, Oct. 5.—A porter employed about the Episcopal palace, while working in the building, discovered a petard to which was attached a burning fuse. Without waiting to raise an alarm the porter promptly removed the missile and extinguished the fuse. Thus far the police have been unable to discover the person or persons who placed the petard in the place.

IT BREAKS OUT ANEW.

After an Important Witness.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 5.—It has become known that Governor Pattison and other state officials are arranging to secure the extradition of Wm. Livesy, the missing ex-cashier of the state treasury, whose evidence is wanted by the legislature's investigation committee and who, it is generally believed, is in Canada. It is said that the matter is in the hands of the attorney general.

A Missing Party Turns Up in Safety.

They have arrived at the settlements this side of the wilderness, and will soon arrive here.

LATTER-DAY SAINTS.

The Annual Conference of the Mormons Meets in Salt Lake City—The Faithful Present.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Oct. 5.—The annual conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter-Day Saints, began in the tabernacle yesterday. About 1,000 of the Mormon faithful were in attendance. All leading men of the church were present. Joseph Smith, one of the presidents, a nephew of the prophet of that name, was present for the first time in several years, having been pardoned by President Harrison. He has been an exile on account of indictments against him. The three presidents, Wilford Woodruff, Joseph F. Smith and George Q. Cannon, delivered addresses. They thanked President Harrison for pardoning President Smith and invoked the blessing of the saints upon him. The belief was expressed that the church was soon to overcome its enemies, and renewed allegiance to the only religion was decreed. Yesterday's session was only devoted to speech making. The meeting lasts three days. Today and tomorrow are to be occupied in business matters.

In spite of lively showers two happy hearts might have been seen wending their way to Pastor Northrop's church study yesterday morning. But the old time adage will be some source of satisfaction to the two hearts made one—"Rain on the wedding wreath brings wealth indeed." The contracting parties were John H. Clark and Anna L. Bruce, both of this city. They begin life auspiciously with the well wishes of a large circle of acquaintances. They expect to reside at 191 Jackson street, where they will be pleased to see their friends after October 10. This service was the beginning of seven attended by Pastor Northrop Sunday—a busy day's work indeed.

A SUIT FOR SLANDER!

Commenced in Court by Henry Drebert Against John H. Trueehtenicl--A Counterfeiter Arrested.

Judge Walpole G. Colerick, as attorney for Henry Drebert, has filed a suit in the superior court against John H. Trueehtenicl asking for a judgment of $2,000 against the defendant for slanderous words uttered by him of and concerning the plaintiff. The difficulty arose out of a ditch case which had been in the county courts, and the petition alleges that the defendant, said these words about the plaintiff to William H. Thompson: "The Dreberts (meaning the plaintiff and his brother, John K. Drebert) are swindlers and I can prove it. They may take me to court and I can swear to it a thousand times. They collected for you (meaning Thompson) more than $11 and kept it," which, the petition says, was charging the plaintiff with being guilty of embezzlement, and was so understood by Thompson when the the words were uttered. The parties are prominent farmers of the county and the case will be interesting when it is tried in the courts.

WILL FILL IT WELL.

Prosecuting Attorney-elect P. B. Colerick, who will take his office the latter part of this month, has appointed to the position of deputy prosecutor E. V. Emerick, who for the last two years has served in that capacity under Prosecuting Attorney Robinson. Mr. Emerick is a young man of brilliant legal attainments, pleasant ways, and has a bright future before him in the law, his chosen profession. During the time he has been deputy prosecutor he has discharged the duties ably and made a host of friends. Mr. Colerick could not have made a better appointment. Mr. Emerick, in addition to his prosecutor's duties, has quite a civil practice, and is successful not only in this field, but also in the state business which is placed in his hands.

COUNTERFEITER ARRESTED.

Deputy United States Marshal John Abel and United States Commissioner Leonard arrived home from Kendallville Saturday evening, having in custody Sam Bloomfield, who was arrested for passing counterfeit coin. The man's method of getting rid of the spurious stuff was to enter a store and procure change for a bill. He would leave and then return a little later and insist that certain counterfeit pieces had been given him in the change. The proprietor would then make the matter right by taking the counterfeit and handing over good money. Bloomfield has been successfully working this dodge on several Kendallville merchants. He dealt mostly in dollars and half dollars, well moulded and of good appearance. The metal, however, is lead, rubbed with quicksilver to give it a genuine looking surface. The half dollar bears the date of 1854, but the dollar shows a date so indistinct that it cannot be read. Marshal Abel thinks that Bloomfield's arrest may lead to the apprehension of a gang of counterfeiters, who have been making money and circulating it in this part of the state. Bloomfield is about thirty five years old, married and has a family and is a laborer. He is a drinking man, and his excesses, it is said, led to crime. The prisoner is in the county jail to await the convening of the United States court.

POLICE COURT.

Mayor Zollinger faced only two criminals in police court this morning when he took his seat to deal out open-handed justice. The first prisoner to respond to his name was W. S. Brown, a man whose home was at Dawkins' Station, a small town in Ohio on the Nickel Plate road. He was arrested by Officer Humbrecht last Saturday night, who found him lying in a fence corner on Baker street in a heastly state of intoxication. The man, who is well dressed and has the appearance of being a well-to-do business man, came to the city Friday. He was drunk that night and also the next day. He said he was on his way to Chicago, but whisky got the best of him. "I didn't act very nice," he said to the mayor, "I'll admit, but make my fine as light as you can." He was given $1 and costs.

Samuel Carpenter, the other prisoner, was arrested by Officer Fletcher for being drunk and insulting a lady on Pearl street. The mayor gave the fellow a severe lecture and fined him $5 and costs.

COURT GULLINGS.

John Miracle has been appointed executor of the estate of Mary Clayton.

Elizabeth D. Korn has qualified as guardian of the minor heirs of John Korn.

John H. Clark and Anna L. Brice have been licensed to wed.

The contested case of John Miller against Olive Archer was tried in Justice Hays' court this morning. Swayne & Doughman were for the plaintiff and Colerick & Oppenheim for the defendant.

John T. Norris, the famous Ohio detective, who is well known in this city, and an old farmer named Thomas Blackburn, from Springfield, Ohio, were arrested at Chicago for alleged attempt at blackmail. Suit was also brought at the same time against the pair, asking for $30,000 damages. The complainant is John D. Snearly, a saloon keeper in Chicago, whose arrest Norris caused for swindling.

Chas. E. McLaughlin, by his next friend, Thomas J. McLaughlin, sues Hoffman Bros. for $5,000 damages. The lad had his right hand mangled in a rip saw and it crippled him for life. Vesey and Heaton are attorneys for the claimant.

DROPPED DEAD!

Gottlieb Weise Suddenly Expires--Death of Miss Clara Roach--Other Deaths.

Gottlieb Weise, a laborer in the Bass foundry, fell dead at his home, 80 John street, shortly after eating his mid-day meal today. He had been ailing since Sunday morning, but no such serious result was anticipated. Death is supposed to be due to heart disease. The deceased was an honest and hard-working German and had many friends. His age was fifty-six years. A family survive him, among them Richard, a son, who until recently worked at the American Wheel works.

OTHER DEATHS.

The angel of death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Besoh, of 133 East Berry street, at midnight Saturday, and beckoned their beloved daughter, Clara, to a new and everlasting home. The young lady died while in a state of unconsciousness, which condition had lasted the three days previous. Shortly before the final dissolution the last sacrament was administered under the rites of the Catholic church. Miss Besoh was prostrated with erysipelas several weeks ago, which, on account of her delicate health, for a year past, left her in a weak condition, so much so that she sank rapidly to the last. Miss Clara was born March 25, 1876, in this city. Gifted with many graces and charms she was a favorite in society. Her amiable disposition endeared her to many friends who will deeply deplore her death. She was an advanced pupil in St. Augustine's academy and was talented in music and the arts. Mrs. Murray Hartnett is a sister of the deceased and there are also four brothers to lament at so sad a parting.

The funeral will be held Wednesday morning from the Cathedral. The interment will be at Lindenwood.

The infant daughter of William Broxon, of Jefferson township, Whitley county, died at noon Saturday. The funeral occurred Sunday afternoon.

The funeral of Dr. Gustine McCullough took place this morning at 9 o'clock at the residence of his father, corner of Douglas avenue and Harrison street.

This evening will be given up to patriotic speech making and festivities in the principal halls.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Being Congratulated.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Mrs. Cleveland was doing very nicely yesterday. Mr. Cleveland was not to be seen. He had instructed the servants to answer questions. The door bell rung steadily all day long. There were many callers, but blue-coated boys were most numerous. No one ever saw such a shower of congratulatory messages. They poured in from all over the the country.

CHILDREN'S DAY

Observed in an Interesting Way at the Grace and Second Presbyterian Churches.

Yesterday was a red-letter day at the Grace Reformed church for the children and young people. The church was tastefully and elaborately decorated. A beautiful arch was constructed over the pulpit rostrum, festooned with wheat, oats, fruits and flowers, while about the pulpit were pyramids of fruits and vegetables. The attendance at the services morning and evening was unusually large, notwithstanding the storm and rain. In the morning the pastor preached a sermon to the children, taking for his topic "Little David." In the evening a programme of singing and speaking was rendered by the children and young people of the church. These exercises were in charge of Mrs. Zartman, and were highly appreciated by the large congregation present. A gentleman from the east who was present at the evening service said at the close: "I have attended many children's day exercises, but these are the best I ever heard. I have never enjoyed a service more." Similar remarks were made by many others who were present. Among those who took part in the evening service were the following: Nettie Richards, Lulu Kratsch, Ida Kontz, Gertie Thompson, Flo Miller, Minnie Horn, Anna Souder, Nina Graham, Lula Bitner, Perry Monn, Willie Walters, Alice Const, Carrie Souder, Carrie Pressler, Josie Zartman, Chester Driftmeyer, Freddie Vordermark, Gertie and Cora Lonergan, Stella Hyman, Katie Pence, Lillian Mathes and others. The members of the choir also rendered excellent service both morning and evening. The offerings for the day were liberal and will be devoted to different benevolent objects of the church.

AT THE SECOND CHURCH.

The dismal aspect of the weather yesterday afternoon did not prevent great streaks of sunshine from shedding its brightness upon the interior of the Second Presbyterian church. While the rain kept up a drizzle on the outside this sunshine streamed in. It was the sunshine of childish, youthful, and older faces that mocked the weather and made joyful all within the doors of the edifice. It was a service of praise and song, with literary gems thrown in, in commemoration of the Feast of the Tabernacle—an after harvest jubilee, as it were. The church was tastily decorated with fruits, sheaves and other things, formed into various designs, a huge arch at the altar being the most conspicuous. The programme was characteristic of children's day. There were selections, literary and musical, a nice talk by the pastor, J. L. Leaper, and an original guessing bee, which was conducted in an original and interesting manner. Stories told in verse by little girls would relate some incident of bible history without giving the character, and the children were asked to guess who the person was. During the exercises the Sunday school orchestra, under the direction of Professor Conkling, discoursed appropriate music, adding much to the enjoyment of the occasion. The exercises began at 4 o'clock, taking the place of the regular Sunday school at 12 o'clock, which was not held yesterday.

A STRANGE WOMAN.

Mrs. J. H. Davis Claims to Have Been Robbed at a Hotel.

The Rich hotel bears the signature of "J. H. Davis and wife, Grand Rapids," in its Sunday list. The man and woman were assigned to a room by the clerk, and that was the last thought of it until this morning, when "Mr. Davis" settled his bill and left for parts unknown, without explaining his intentions. A little later the woman who represented herself as his wife, called at the office desk and stated that she had been robbed of $30, and wanted satisfaction from the house. She was politely informed that no one was responsible for her missing money but herself, and she was given a broad hint to go and hunt up the man who had claimed to be her husband and find out what he knew about it. The woman was much confused and contradicted herself once or twice, but she collected herself enough to withdraw, not, however, until she was given some wholesome advice by Mr. Paulus, one of the proprietors.

Zollinger, as a member of the department council of administration, will assist. The meeting will be held at Sion S. Bass hall and it is expected that a complete organization will be effected.

Scrofula

Is more especially dangerous when it leads to kidney disease, and for this reason it should be driven from impure and impoverished blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla has made its reputation by the remarkable cures it has effected when all other preparations have failed. It is composed of the best vegetable alteratives, and is especially adapted to the treatment of scrofulous diseases. But Hood's Sarsaparilla is not a secret remedy, for the formula is published with every bottle. It is the best blood purifier and strength builder before the public.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Entirely Cured

"When my boy was three years old he was attacked and suffered a long time with scrofula sores. The physician at length told us to give him Hood's Sarsaparilla, which we did. Two bottles cured him. He is now 10 years old and has not had any sign of scrofula since. We recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to all our friends." MRS. E. C. CLEVELAND, 8 Hilder St., Cleveland, O.

Is not a cosmetic in the sense in which that term is popularly used, but permanently beautifies. It creates a soft, smooth, clear, velvety skin, and by daily use gradually makes the complexion several shades whiter. It is a constant protection from the effects of sun and wind and prevents sun burn and freckles, and blackheads never come while you use it. It cleanses the face far better than soap and water, nourishes and builds up the skin tissues and thus prevents the formation of wrinkles. It gives the freshness, clearness and smoothness of skin that you had when a little girl. Every lady, young or old, ought to use it, as it gives a more youthful appearance to any lady, and that permanently. It contains no acid, powder or alkali, and is so harmless as dew and as nourishing to the skin as dew is to the flower. Price $1.00 at all druggists and hairdressers, or at Mrs. Graham's exhibitionment, 108 Post Street, San Francisco, where she treats ladies for all blemishes of the face or figure. Ladies at a distance treated by letter. Send stamp for her little book "How to be Beautiful."

THE second anniversary edition of the Logansport Daily Reporter, issued last Saturday, gives twelve pages of local and miscellaneous reading matter and an interesting review of many of the business and manufacturing firms of that city. The number reflects credit upon the Reporter's editor and proprietor, Mr. J. E. Sutton.

THOUGH everybody knows that ex-Senator Blanche K. Bruce, the colored Mississippian, holds the position of recorder of deeds in the District of Columbia, it is not generally understood that this is the best paying federal office after the presidency. When Fred Douglass held the place it paid him the handsome return of $40,000 a year.

THE announcement that President Harrison has contributed $5,000 to the New York campaign fund was plainly a misprint. He may have put in $500, but even that is not authoritatively declared. If the president has contributed toward legitimate campaign expenses he has probably stipulated that it will go where it will do the most good for Ben.

THE supreme court of Michigan has rendered a decision that revivifies the spirit of the old common law and encourages husbands to lead an indolent, drunken life, depending upon their wife's earnings for support. A woman sued the executors of an estate for her services as nurse and they refused to pay, on the ground that her earnings belonged to her husband. The circuit court sustained this plea and the supreme court affirmed the judgment. There is no state in the country which affords higher educational advantages to its women, or greater facilities for training in the various industries than does Michigan. As a consequence it produces a large number of teachers and of woman workers in all kinds of pursuits. They will not be particularly stimulated by this finding of the supreme court that their earnings belong to their husbands to be used as they please. It should be entitled "a decision to discourage matrimony." A woman does not, as a rule, expect to continue as bread-winner after marriage, but, if circumstances make it necessary, she would like the assurance that, after she has earned them, she may take her wages and buy bread. The supreme court has decided, however, that they belong to her husband to buy whisky with if he choose to do so.

THE government weather crop bulletin, covering the whole month of September, 1891, just issued, states that it "was warmer and dryer than any previous September of which there is record in the weather bureau over the principal agricultural districts east of the Rocky mountains." In the Upper Mississippi valley the average daily temperature was from six to eight degrees higher than usual. During the ten days ending September 28, throughout the Mississippi and Ohio valleys and the lake region, the mean maximum temperature exceeded by twelve to fifteen degrees the normal maximum temperature for the third decade of the month.

THE prosecuting attorney at Elyria, Ohio, has an original way of dealing with the saloon keepers who do not obey the law, as will be seen by the following from that place: "Prosecuting Attorney Webber has created a sensation here by raiding the saloons during the fair. In company with the city marshal he visited all the saloons in town, catching several in the act of selling. In two cases he kicked in the door and is now threatened with charge of burglary, the saloon men having employed a prominent lawyer to prosecute him. Some of the saloonists feel very sick, as they have work house sentences hanging over them."

"THE Master is come and called for thee," was the text used by Rev. J. M. Driver for the discourse delivered by him at the City Y. M. C. A. meeting yesterday afternoon. The words were those of Martha to her sister Mary and were spoken concerning the coming of Christ just after the death of their brother, Lazarus. After narrating the incident in a beautiful manner Dr. Driver proceeded to impress upon his audience some of the lessons it taught. "The Master is come and calleth for thee." Christ calls in all ages of the world for men to come unto him. It is a universal call. It is extended to all, the rich and the poor, the young and the old, the sick and the well of every nation and race and generation. It is also a particular call, extended to each person. God calls us to come to Him in many ways. He calls through nature. Theosophists hear this call. They feel the need of something and, not willing to accept the gospel of Christ, are attempting to go back into the philosophies of the past and substitute something for the religion of the Bible. God also calls us by the Bible. Fifty thousand times or more He calls us in His holy word to come unto Him. He calls us through the church and the ministry and through each individual member of the church. He calls us by the afflictions and the adversities of this life and by His angels to come unto Him. Oh, let us listen to these calls, Dr. Driver said in closing, and find rest and peace and happiness and eternal life.

IN A NEW CHURCH HOME.

The Handsome Edifice of the Zion Lutheran Congregation Dedicated to the Lord.

Yesterday was a red letter day in the history of the Zion Lutheran congregation of this city, for it witnessed the dedication to God of their magnificent new church at the corner of Creighton avenue and Hanna street. The services connected with the dedication were of an interesting and impressive character and were participated in by a vast multitude of people from this city and Lutherans who came here from Indianapolis, Lafayette, Logansport, Kendallville, Huntington and elsewhere, it being estimated that the excursion trains from those places brought 3,000 strangers to the city.

The new church is one of the handsomest in the state, and, with the improvements around the grounds and the real estate, has cost the congregation about $60,000, the church edifice alone and the furnishings having cost over $45,000. The audience room has a seating capacity of 1,600 and is built something after the plan of the Emanuel and St. Paul churches, with a semi-circle gallery, in which is the grand organ, which cost $2,500. Modern style of architecture characterizes every detail of the new edifice, both in regard to its interior and exterior arrangements, and the Zion Lutherans can justly feel proud of the magnificent temple which they have erected to the glory of God.

The congregation is an off-shoot of the St. Paul church and in the last few years has grown very rapidly. It numbers 200 families and has a membership of 1,250 persons over fifteen years of age. Their pastor is Rev. Henry Juengel, who is an excellent pulpit speaker and to whose efforts much of the wonderful growth and the building of the new edifice is due. Yesterday was a proud day for him for it saw his church enter upon a new era of prosperity.

The dedication services took place yesterday morning, the sermon being preached in German by Rev. Dr. Jox, of Logansport. In the afternoon the services were conducted by Rev. P. Saul, of Indianapolis. Both divines preached able and eloquent sermons and the church was crowded on each occasion.

In the evening the exercises were in English and a vast audience crowded the new temple to hear the sermon preached by Rev. Albrecht, the assistant pastor of the Emanuel congregation. After singing by the excellent choir, the reading of scriptures and prayer, the young divine ascended the pulpit to commence his discourse, and facing a congregation of 2,500 people took for his text the 19, 20, 21 and 22 verses of the second chapter of Ephesians. His sermon was one which was replete with grand thought and eloquently delivered. A new church, he said, means the growing of the influence and the power of Christ, and looking at this edifice, which has just been dedicated to God, and contemplating the history of our religion, one is more convinced than ever that the Christ Jesus is a sure and safe rock upon which to rest. He then proceeded to unfold the thought—suggested by his text—the temple of the church of God. What is the foundation of the church? Shall it be the reason of man? Verily no. Though human intellect may accomplish great results, it could never solve the mysteries of religion. Neither can ecclesiastical bodies, or church fathers, or church councils do this. The only foundation for the church of God is the prophets and the apostles, of which Christ is the head. It is the Bible which these inspired men gave us. Whatever the Bible says should be taken as the foundation of our church. The Bible, and the Bible alone, should be accepted as the standard of truth. God has spoken through the prophets and the apostles and it is our duty to accept His word.

The speaker continued at length upon this thought and then spoke of the congregation upon which the church in this world rests, characterizing them as stones upon which the temple is built. The members have renounced their allegiance to all powers and turned to Christ. They have entered the kingdom and became legal subjects to God. They believe in Christ and upon their shoulders the temple rests. Let each perform his part, grow in grace and the church will increase proportionately in the grand good it is doing for the world. He closed by saying that he hoped that this church would ever grow in strength; that the temple just dedicated might never be desecrated by an improper act or deed, and that all might meet in Heaven to praise God forever and ever.

After singing by the choir and prayer the benediction was pronounced and the immense congregation was dismissed. The day, despite the rain, had been a grand one for the Lutherans, and they now commence a new era in their history.

Lutheranism in Fort Wayne makes an interesting page in her history. The first congregation organized in this city was on Saturday, October 14, 1837, when a few German citizens gathered at the court house and gave the German Evangelical Lutheran church a foothold in this part of the state. Sixty five persons then entered their names upon the church register and, after an organization had been perfected, Rev. Jesse Hoover, of Woodstock, Va., was called as pastor. This was the nucleus from which sprang the St. Paul, the Emanuel and in time the other Lutheran congregations of the city and vicinity. It was 1832 that the Zion church was established. Rev. Henry Juengel, the pastor, is a graduate of Concordia seminary and came here in 1887. He is a favorite with his people and enjoys the esteem and confidence of the citizens of Fort Wayne. The Zion church, under his pastoral care, has a bright future.

TAKE S.S.S. IN THE SPRING.

Nature should be assisted in the spring to throw off the heaviness of the sluggish winter circulation of the blood. Nothing does it so well, so prompt or so safely as Swift's Specific.

I have used S. S. S. for a number of years, and consider it the best tonic and blood remedy that I ever used. In fact I would not attempt to enter upon a spring or summer in this climate without it.

RAILWAY NEWS.

Brief Sketch of a Familiar Figure in Railway Circles—Local News of Interest to Railway Men.

THE SENTINEL today presents to its readers a picture of a gentleman which will be recognized by all. It is that of

A. H. Polhamus, road foreman of engines of the Pittsburg, one of the men who commenced railroad life at the bottom of the ladder, and by honest, faithful attention to the duties of his various positions, has arisen in the ranks to his present responsible office.

Mr. Polhamus is a native of New York, born in the village of Sodus, Wayne county, January 20, 1837. He lived with his parents upon a farm until April, 1858, when he shipped as steward on board a schooner, the "I. E. Rogers," plying between Oswego, N. Y., and Hamilton, Ont. For several years he followed the occupation of a sailor, the last season being first mate of the schooner James Navah, running between Buffalo and Milwaukee. This schooner was laid up for repairs in September and Mr. Polhamus started out in search of other work. September 14, 1858, he commenced railroading and that fall assisted in the grading and laying of the track for the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad from Valparaiso, Ind., to Chicago, having charge of the construction train. He then came to Fort Wayne and went to braking on division C. In August, 1860, he was given the position of fireman and three years later was promoted to engineer. For six years he ran a freight engine between Fort Wayne and Crestline, was then promoted to a passenger run on the same division, which he held six months, when he was changed to the western division. This was in March, 1870, and he continued in the service of the company in this capacity until April, 1882, when he was promoted to the position of road foreman of engines, a position he now holds. He has charge of divisions C and D which extend from Crestline to Chicago, a distance of nearly 300 miles. Mr. Polhamus recently started in on the thirty-fourth years' service with the Pennsylvania company.

The board of rulings asked the Baltimore and Ohio to discharge the ticket agents on its lines who had been receiving commissions, but General Passenger Agent Scull gave the matter no attention.

Charles Waldmann, of the Pittsburg shops, is taking a much needed vacation.

Pittsburg Engineer A. J. Ford has reported for duty, having regained his health.

Wm. Lesch, of the Pittsburg shops, who has been quite sick, is slowly improving.

Last Thursday the Grand Rapids road carried 1,900 passengers to the Kendallville fair.

J. L. Wilson, P. H. Nulf and F. Simonton, all Pittsburg firemen, are off duty on account of sickness.

Engineer B. F. Campbell, of the Pittsburg, suffers with a lame arm, which keeps him from his duties.

Last week the Wabash road placed an order for 300 coal cars with the Missouri Car and Foundry company.

Engineer H. D. Rose, of the Pittsburg, reported for duty this morning, having been absent for a few days.

Mrs. Mary Connolly, of Logansport, has taken the position of night operator in the Wabash offices at Waverly, Ind.

Foreman W. Wolford, for the Cincinnati, Wabash and Michigan shops at Wabash, spent Sunday with his family in this city.

T. McCarthy and P. E. Malone, of the Pittsburg, knights of the pick and scoop, have returned to work after a few days' lay off.

Em. Rust, of the Olds wagon works, is taking a vacation in order that he may properly entertain John Openshaw, who is his guest.

Frank Iten, jr., of Indianapolis, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Iten, sr. Young Mr. Iten was accompanied by his wife.

Frank Logue has succeeded O. L. Quick as operator in the Wabash office at this point. Mr. Logue was formerly of the Nickel Plate offices.

There is a freight blockade at Peoria. Among other freights are 1,500 carloads of anthracite and other coals destined to western points.

The passenger earnings of the month of September of the Fort Wayne branch of the Lake Shore system show an increase over the same period for 1890 of $691.44.

Official announcement is made of the appointment of J. N. Brown as acting assistant general passenger and ticket agent of the Union Pacific road, vice J. W. Scott resigned.

William Boese, a carpenter and a former citizen of Fort Wayne, is now permanently located in Denver, Col., where he has taken a position in the foundry of Val Schram.

F. Forbing took a position this morning in the Pittsburg lumber yards. Tomorrow five men will be added to the force in the blacksmith department, under Foreman George Judy.

A Nickel Plate brakeman, named Ricketts, lost both of his feet last Saturday. The accident which caused the loss occurred on the middle division between Bellevue and Cleveland.

Freight men of good judgment say that the wheat movement will continue light until it reaches a dollar a bushel or lake navigation closes. The roads will in either case have plenty do so.

The Indianapolis Journal says: "Fifty per cent. of the men employed in the railroad shops at Fort Wayne are said to own nice homes. The permanency of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago and the Nickel Plate shops at that point makes it perfectly safe for an employe to get for himself a good home."

Robert Douglass, who has been filling a position in the Wabash ticket office at Peru, will return to this city this week to resume his former position in the ticket office under Agent R. G. Thompson.

The Lake Shore road ran a special into the city yesterday on account of the dedication of Zion's Lutheran church. The excursion party was composed chiefly of residents of Kendallville and Auburn.

Mr. J. H. Grant, formerly traveling freight agent for the New York, Chicago and St. Louis railroad, has been appointed commercial agent for the company at Buffalo, N. Y., and will remove to that city at once.

Jack Metcalf has taken a position in the Pittsburg freight house, having resigned the position he held in the factory of Rhinesmith & Simonson. Chas. Tilshury was given the vacant place in the door and sash factory.

A. Kuhmer, a machinist, had the misfortune to mash a finger in a painful manner this morning. The accident has placed him on the "off duty" list for a few days at least. Mr. Kuhmer is employed in the Pittsburg shops.

Col. S. B. Sweet, general freight agent of the Lake Erie and Western road, with headquarters at Indianapolis, was circulating among his numerous friends in this city yesterday. He is always a welcome visitor to Fort Wayne.

The Erie finds having direct control of the Chicago and Erie road, formerly the Chicago and Atlantic, much more to its advantage than under the former order of things. One thing is certain, freight rates are better maintained than formerly.

Another effort is being made to start up the Indianapolis car works. John Krehbiel, representing a New England syndicate, made an examination of the plant Saturday, and says if too much is not asked for it the people he represents may make the purchase.

Barney Loos, formerly of the Bass works, is visiting his father, the Lafayette street grocer. Mr. Loos is now foreman of the Vulcan Iron works, Chicago. He was recently married to an accomplished and pretty young lady and his bride is here with him.

M. Lee, M. Tower, John Casey and Ed Hill, all of the Pittsburg, took a run on their bicycles to Wabash Saturday evening, expecting to return yesterday in the same manner, but the rain interfered with their plans. They came home last evening on a Wabash train.

The Wabash carried 1,400 passengers into this city yesterday, the attraction here being the dedication of the Zion Lutheran church. Indianapolis sent 600 people and Lafayette and intermediate points furnished 800. The train was run in two sections, there being in all fourteen crowded coaches.

President Jeffery, of the Rio Grande, denies that he owes his present position to the influence of the Santa Fe. He says: "It is true that Mr. Manvel and myself have been personal friends for more than twenty-five years, but he was not consulted in the matter of my appointment, and he is, perhaps, not aware even of it."

Ticket Agent Ross, of the Pittsburg, is working up an excursion to Ada, Ohio, for next Thursday. The attraction at Ada on that day is a joint debate between Ohio's gubernatorial candidates, Campbell and McKinley. The train will leave this city at 10 a. m. and return at 7:30 p. m. Fort Wayne will send two large delegations.

The appointment of J. H. Grant to the position of chief contracting agent of the Nickel Plate caused a promotion all along the line. J. G. Tennant succeeds Mr. Grant as traveling freight agent. W. L. Ryan succeeds Mr. Tennant, and John Roberts succeeds Mr. Ryan. All are traveling freight agents with headquarters respectively at Fort Wayne, Fostoria, Ohio, and Omaha, Neb. Mr. Tennant's headquarters will be in this city.

A Gift From Her Pastor.

"In June, 1889, after the great flood," says Mrs. E. L. Henric, of Johnstown, Pa., "at a time when I was very much run down with diarrhœa and had tried two doctors without finding relief, I received a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy from my pastor. This remedy relieved me at once, and cured me entirely in a short time. I got several bottles and gave it around among my acquaintances who were afflicted in the same way." For sale by druggists.

"Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" has been used over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, cures wind colic, regulates the bowels and is the best remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. For sale by druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. 25c. a bottle. an27-1y

"CONFIDENCE BEGETS LOVE."

CHILD. "Grandma, kiss me good-night. She's so asleep, but we so love to be up to all of the ladies that call on Mother."

MRS. PINKHAM. "Yes, darling, when you are older perhaps you may do as I have done."

CHILD. "Everybody loves you, grandma; I wish everybody would become," MRS. PINKHAM. "Everyone will be so you, my child, if they can confide in you."

The above dialogue tells its own story; even the little child, without knowing why her grandmother is so universally loved, sees in her face a light of intellectual sympathy that satisfies her. That sympathy has extended itself all over the world, for wherever civilized women exist, Mrs. Pinkham is known and revered.

"I have been bothered with catarrh for about twenty years; I had lost sense of smell entirely, and I had almost lost my hearing. My eyes were getting so dim I had to get some one to thread my needle. Now I have my hearing as well as I ever had, and I can see to thread as fine a needle as ever I did, my sense of smell is partly restored, and it seems to be improving all the time. I think there is nothing like Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh. Mrs. E. E. Grimes, Kendrill, Perry Co., O.
